1. Nature of Operations and Going Concern

Plateau Energy Metals Inc. (formerly Plateau Uranium Inc.) (the "Company") is a publicly listed company incorporated under the Ontario Business Corporations Act. The Company's common shares are listed on the TSX Venture Exchange (TSX-V: PLU) and on the OTCQB Market in the United States (OTC:PLUUF).

The registered address, principal address and records office of the Company is located at 141 Adelaide Street West, Suite 340, Toronto, Ontario, M5H 3L5.

The Company is in the process of exploring and developing its mineral resource properties located in Peru. To date, the Company has not earned significant revenues and is considered to be in the exploration stage. The realization of amounts shown for resource properties is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to develop these properties, and future profitable production or proceeds of disposition from these properties. Although the Company has taken steps to verify title to mineral properties in which it has an interest, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Such properties may be subject to prior agreements or transfers and title may be affected by undetected defects. Property title may be subject to unregistered prior agreements, unregistered claims, aboriginal claims, and non-compliance with regulatory and environmental requirements.

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company has not generated revenue from operations. During the six months ended March 31, 2019, the Company incurred a comprehensive loss of $3,907,929 (2018 - $1,989,005), and as of that date, the Company had working capital of $1,396,503 (September 30, 2018 – deficit of $637,280). The Company will need to raise funds to continue operations and, although it has been successful in doing so in the past, there is no assurance it will be able to do so in the future. Should the Company be unsuccessful in doing so, there is a significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, and therefore, a material uncertainty exists in relation to the going concern assumption.

2. Basis of Presentation

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiary Macusani Yellowcake S.A.C. ("Macusani Peru"). All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

a) Statement of Compliance

The Company's interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting ("IAS 34"). The IAS 34 interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all of the information required for annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2018, which were prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). The significant accounting policies (note 3) have been applied consistently to all periods. These policies are based on IFRS effective as of March 31, 2019.

The Board of Directors approved these interim condensed consolidated statements on May 22, 2019.

b) Basis of Measurement

The Company's interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair value.

2. Basis of Presentation (continued)

c) Functional and Presentation Currency

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian Dollars. The functional currency of the Company is the Canadian Dollar. The functional currency of Macusani Peru, Exploraciones Macusani and Minergia is the United States Dollar.

d) Segmental Reporting

The Company is organized into business units based on its mineral properties and has one reportable operating segment, the acquisition, and exploration and evaluation of mineral properties in Peru. All of the Company's assets are devoted to the acquisition, and exploration and evaluation of its mineral properties, and form a single cash generating unit.

3. Significant Accounting Policies

The accounting policies applied in these interim condensed consolidated financial statements are consistent with the policies applied in the audited annual financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2018, except for the adoption of new accounting standards effective for years beginning on or after January 1, 2018 set out below or otherwise indicated.

a) Adoption of new accounting standard IFRS 9 "Financial Instruments"

IFRS 9 "Financial Instruments" was issued in final form in July 2014 by the IASB and will replace IAS 39 "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement". IFRS 9 uses a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortized cost or fair value, replacing the multiple rules in IAS 39. The approach in IFRS 9 is based on how an entity manages its financial instruments in the context of its business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. The new standard also requires a single impairment method to be used, replacing the multiple impairment methods in IAS 39. IFRS 9 also includes requirements relating to a new hedge accounting model, which represents a substantial overhaul of hedge accounting which will allow entities to better reflect their risk management activities in the financial statements. The most significant improvements apply to those that hedge non-financial risk, and so these improvements are expected to be of particular interest to non-financial institutions. IFRS 9 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018. The adoption of this standard has not had any impact on the financial statements.

b) Future Accounting Changes

IFRS 16 "Leases" was issued in January 2016 and replaces IAS 17 Leases. Under IAS 17, lessees were required to make a distinction between a finance lease and an operating lease. If the lease was classified as a finance lease, a lease liability was included on the statement of financial position. IFRS 16 now requires lessees to recognize a right of use asset and lease liability reflecting future lease payments for virtually all lease contracts. The right of use asset is treated similarly to other non-financial assets and depreciated accordingly. The lease liability accrues interest. The IASB has included an optional exemption for certain short-term leases and leases of low value assets; however, this exemption can only be applied by lessees. Under IFRS 16, a contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the identified asset's use and obtain substantially all the economic benefits from that use. IFRS 16 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019 with early adoption permitted if IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, is also applied.

The Company has not yet completed its evaluations of the effect of adopting the above standards and amendment and the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements.

3. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

c) Critical Accounting Judgments and Estimation Uncertainties

The preparation of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires the Company's management to make critical judgments, estimates and assumptions about future events that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and related notes to the consolidated financial statements. Actual results may differ from those estimates. Estimates and assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant under the circumstances. Revisions to estimates are accounted for prospectively.

The Company has identified the following critical accounting policies under which significant judgments, estimates and assumptions are made and where actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions and conditions and may materially affect financial results or the financial position reported in future periods. Further details of the nature of these assumptions and conditions may be found in the relevant notes to the financial statements.

Critical accounting estimates relate to the following:

Exploration and Evaluation Expenditures

The Company charges all exploration and evaluation expenditures incurred prior to the establishment of technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting mineral resources to operations as incurred. Determination of technical feasibility and commercial viability require the use of judgements, estimates and assumptions which may differ under varying conditions.

Share-based Payments

The Company measures the cost of equity-settled transactions with employees by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the date at which they are granted. Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determining the most appropriate valuation model, which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determining the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the share option, volatility and dividend yield and making assumptions about them. The assumptions and models used for estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions are disclosed in notes 6 and 7.

Bifurcation of unit proceeds

The Company adopts a relative fair value method with respect to the measurement of common shares and warrants issued as private placement units. The amounts used to estimate fair values of warrants issued are based on estimates of future volatility of the Company's share price, expected lives of the warrants, expected dividends to be paid by the Company and other relevant assumptions. By their nature, these estimates are subject to measurement uncertainty and the effect of changes in such estimates on the consolidated financial statements of future periods could be significant. The assumptions and models used for estimating fair value for warrants are disclosed in note 6.

4. Mineral Properties and Exploration Expenditures

The Company is principally engaged in exploration for lithium and uranium on its properties located in the Macusani plateau region of Peru. As at March 31, 2019, the Company, through its Peruvian subsidiaries, held a total of 151 mining concessions covering an aggregate area of approximately 93,000 hectares. The Company has allocated the various concessions to different property groups based on their geographic location for purposes of allocating annual property expenditures. Property expenditures including depreciation of exploration equipment for the six months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018 are as follows:

Expected volatility based on the historical volatility of the Company's shares	228%
Forfeiture	0%

(ii) Issued 500,000 stock options to a director and officer. The options vest as to 50% on the one year anniversary and 50% on the two year anniversary of the grant date. Each option entitles the holder to purchase one common share at a price of $1.14 per share at any time prior to August 17, 2023 (the "expiry date"). The fair value of the options was estimated at $1.1667 per option, for a total value of $583,350 of which $52,715 was expensed.

The fair value of the options was estimated at the grant date based on the Black-Scholes pricing model, using the following assumptions:

Share price	$1.18
Expected dividend yield	Nil
Risk-free interest rate	1.54%
Expected life	5 years
Expected volatility based on the historical volatility of the Company's shares	225%
Forfeiture	0%

Stock option pricing models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected price volatility. Changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, and therefore, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable measure of the fair value of the Company's stock options.

As at March 31, 2019, accounts payable and accrued liabilities included $97,781 (September 30, 2018 - $836,979) related to various related parties disclosed above, of which $Nil (September 30, 2018 - $675,000) related to accrued bonuses.

9. Financial Instruments

IFRS 7, Financial Instruments Disclosures, establishes a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of inputs used in making fair value measurements as follows:

Level 1 quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. from derived prices)

Level 3 inputs for the asset or liability that are not based upon observable market data

Assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. As at March 31, 2019, the Company's cash and cash equivalents are categorized as Level 1 measurement.

Fair Values

The carrying amounts for the Company's financial instruments approximate their fair values because of the short-term nature of these items.

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

Credit Risk

The Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk as at March 31, 2019. The Company's cash is on deposit with a highly rated banking group in Canada.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they come due. The Company's approach to managing and mitigating liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due through management's use of financial forecasts and budgets. As at March 31, 2019, the Company has current assets of $2,159,726 and current liabilities of $763,223. All of the Company's current financial liabilities and receivables have contractual maturities of less than 90 days and are subject to normal trade terms. The Company's working capital is $1,396,503 as at March 31, 2019.

Market Risk

(i) Interest rate risk

The Company has cash and cash equivalents balances and does not have any interest-bearing debt.

9. Financial Instruments (continued)

(ii) Foreign currency risk

The Company and its subsidiaries incur significant purchases denominated in currencies other than the presentation currency, the Canadian dollar, and are subject to foreign currency risk on assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the Canadian dollar. As at March 31, 2019, the Company had cash of 126,891 United States Dollars and accounts payable and accrued liabilities of 12,314 United States Dollars. As at March 31, 2019, the Company had cash of 1,837 Peruvian New Sols and accounts payable and accrued liabilities of 927,687 Peruvian New Sols. The Company does not hedge the foreign currency balances.

Sensitivity analysis

The Company's management believes the following movements are "reasonably possible" over a three month period based on their knowledge and experiences of the financial markets.

If the Canadian Dollar weakens (or strengthens) 10% against the United States Dollar with other variables held constant, the Company's net loss would decrease (or increase) by approximately $3,899. If the Canadian Dollar weakens (or strengthens) 10% against the Peruvian New Sol with other variables held constant, the Company's net loss would increase (or decrease) by approximately $7.018.

10. Capital Disclosures

The Company's objective when managing capital is to raise sufficient funds to execute its exploration plan. At March 31, 2019, the Company's capital consists of shareholders' equity of $1,405,628 (September 30, 2018 – deficit of $628,155).

The properties in which the Company currently has an interest are in the exploration stage; as such, the Company is dependent on external financing to fund its activities. In order to carry out the planned exploration and pay for administrative costs, the Company will spend its existing working capital and raise additional amounts as needed.

The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business. The Company does not have any externally imposed capital requirements.

There were no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the six months ended March 31, 2019.

11. Segment Reporting

	Canada	Peru
